

Beaumont Hamel 100th Anniversary
Royal Canadian Legion - Newfoundland & Labrador
10 Days: England, France & Belgium
Tuesday, June 28 – Thursday, July 7, 2016

Just after dawn on July 1, 1916, over 800 brave young Newfoundlanders advanced from the trenches on the first day of Battle of the Somme. The following day, only 68 of them could stand for roll call. A day which forever marked the Dominion of Newfoundland. On the preserved battlefield now stands the majestic caribou, the emblem of the Royal Newfoundland Regiment, in honour of these men who served.

This tour is for members of the Royal Canadian Legion - Newfoundland & Labrador Command and their families to travel together for the July 1, 2016 100th Anniversary at Beaumont Hamel, be a part of the official remembrance ceremony, and explore other sites of Newfoundland's history in Europe, including the four other caribou monuments in France and Belgium.

With a full-time tour leader, a balance of guided activities and free time to explore on your own, this tour will deliver an exceptional and emotional experience for you.

With a planned group size of 25-30 people per bus, our tour includes:

- Tuesday, June 28, 2016: A direct flight overnight to London from St. John's. Morning arrival June 29 and a transfer by Eurostar to Northern France.
